

Conclusion:-Each Individual is unique and each individual life has a beauty in its uniqueness. The good qualities which we have learnt from our dear founder AnsKeus was a continuous challenge and encouragement for all of us staff and management to give ourselves fully for the cause,i:e the welfare of our crèche children and their families through hard work, innovativeness',self-awareenes, courage, and endurance Yes, dear Anskeus,you had lead us by example. Not only that you have selected an apt person, who is the President of Stitch-ting Bangalore to develop and continue this noble work with the same interest and selfless love& dedication of the poor needy and marginalized children.

Well, if I have to talk and explain about the good leadership qualities and the high Ethics of Jeannette they are innumerable. When she and her husband Mr.Peters Labrijin, visited us last year ,they had taken much trouble of meeting personally Mr. Azim Premji (A.P.P.I) along with Rotary Jayanth in order to help us to start two more crèches also to have little more facilities for crèche children. With this one gesture, we know her genuine concern, personal competence & farsighted vision, with which she functions for the continuation and progress of our crèche children. We are happy and grateful that we have good news from A.P.P.I .

Visit of Mr. Azim Premji to Our Creches .

But only due to COVID-!9 all our activities are stand still. We only wish
